

Newman School Community Council

January 11, 2017

In attendance: Adam Sagers, Deb Andrews, Dan Aragon, Jorge Zamora, Jennifer Buell, Margarita Perez, Angelique Morrill

1. Mr. Zamora discussed the Utah Association of School Community Councils conference on Thursday, January 12, 2017 at Highland High School from 3:30PM-8PM. He contacted Salt Lake City about the Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) training about getting a training at Newman, but hasn't heard back. He provided information about the Open House at the Salt Lake Center for Science Education on January 19, 2017 from 5:30PM-7PM on their campus at 1400 Goodwin Avenue. He had information about earning through 3 college credits for $50 through the University of Utah Neighborhood Partners from January 20, 2017-April 7, 2017 on Fridays from 8:30AM-11:30AM at the Mountain View-Glendale Community Learning Center on 1380 South Navajo. For more information, please call NeighborWorks Salt Lake at 801.539.1590. Mr. Zamora mentioned that the police told him that the parking lot is private property. Suggestions were to get volunteers to help people park and drop off in the correct areas. Mr. Zamora asked about the school's plan about immigration and it is basically waiting to see what happens after the inauguration and the policies that follow. At the Rose Park Community Council, volunteers were being solicited for the Veteran's Administration (VA).
2. Mrs. Andrews discussed the final report from last year's Trust Land Funds report, which showed a decrease in our kindergartener's End of Level testing from 74-73% and an increase in our kindergartener's End of Level testing from 81-82%.
3. Mr. Zamora mentioned ways that more parents can participate in school. Mrs. Andrews suggested having an SCC meeting dedicated to brainstorming ways that we can increase parent participation at Newman.
4. The next meeting will be on February 1, 2017 at 6PM.
